Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

12/15

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$75	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCreditAndDebtCounselors.aspx>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

AGREEMENT FOR BANKRUPTCY SERVICES

This is a contract between the undersigned (Client) and C. Dean Matsas & Associates, P.C. (Law Office), a debt relief agency that helps people file for bankruptcy relief under the Bankruptcy Code. In this contract the client agrees to pay for these services in the following manner:

1. BASIC FEES

Client will pay in full, prior to the petition being filed with the Court, the basic flat fee of: $4,500.00, which does not include the $335.00 filing fee and $45.00 for the credit report from all three reporting agencies along with your FICO score. This fee is for time, preparation, scheduling concerns and responsibility involved and covers only the following services, until such time that the petition is discharged, dismissed or withdrawn:

- a. preparation and filing of voluntary petition for Chapter 7 bankruptcy, with no amendments;
- b. attendance at the first creditors meeting at the location officially set by the Court;
- c. reasonable counsel and advice to the client concerning bankruptcy;
- d. informational services and reasonable negotiation with creditors included in the petition;
- e. provision of one copy of the petition and discharge notice, if applicable, to client.

The fee is based upon Client's representation that the number of creditors which will be listed on the petition are between n/a and n/a . The fee will not increase, so long as the number of creditors has not changed nor the basic nature of the Client's case or laws governing bankruptcy, prior to filing. Client has been informed that garnishments, lawsuits, wage assignments or other collection matters will proceed until such time that the petition is filed with the Court.

Client is responsible for the Court filing fee and cost of credit report. Any payments provided by the Client shall be applied to the attorney fee if representation terminates prior to filing.

Individuals filing for relief in bankruptcy are subject to an audit pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. Such audits are generally random but in the event your file is selected for such an audit, there will be an additional fee due our office in the amount of $300.00 to respond to such an audit.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES OF DEBTOR (Client)

Client agrees to cooperate with the attorney in the preparation of Client's petition and provide complete, accurate and truthful information for each and every question, after reasonable inquiry. Client agrees to provide complete and accurate replacement value of each asset, after reasonable inquiry, to establish said value. Client agrees to keep Law Office informed of changes of address, phone number, etc. Client understands that failure to cooperate with Law Office or to provide prompt, truthful, accurate and complete information may result in the Law Office withdrawing from representation of Client.

Client authorizes Law Office to begin work on his/her petition, accept phone queries from creditors and perform related tasks and scheduling. Client acknowledges that in the event Client is unable or unwilling to file, files and later decides not to proceed, is barred from filing for any reason or Law Office withdraws for Client's failure to fully cooperate in a timely manner, Law Office legal fees for work done, to said date, will remain due.

Client acknowledges that he/she has been specifically instructed to continue making payments to those creditors such as autos and homes for which the Client wishes to retain the collateral or credit. Client acknowledges that he/she has been further informed that the official discharge notice will arrive no sooner than sixty (60) days from the date of the Creditors' Meeting.

Client acknowledges that he/she has disclosed all prior bankruptcy filings to Law Office and those filed within the last eight (8) years are indicated in writing on the bankruptcy petition.

Client acknowledges that he/she has been specifically informed that all Debtors must bring a picture identification and original social security card (or another official document that contains the social security number) to the Creditors' Meeting. Client has been informed that if both these documents are not produced, the Trustee will refuse to proceed with the Meeting.

Client acknowledges that Law Office is relying on Client's representations as to the existence of assets and debts, the secured or unsecured nature of these debts, as well as, answers to all other questions on the petition. Client understands that although multiple conversations with Law Office or staff of Law Office may have occurred prior to the actual preparation of the petition, only the answers appearing on the petition reflect the recollection of Law Office as to such conversations. In the event that this contract or the petition does not accurately reflect the Client's answers or if any representations of Law Office are not accurately reflected on this contract, it is important that the Client not sign these documents until corrections have been made. Client acknowledges that he/she has been given ample opportunity to examine the bankruptcy petition and has thoroughly reviewed all of the pages. Client finds the documents to be complete and truthful to the very best of his/her knowledge and represents that all information, including creditor information, that has been provided to the Law Office is contained in this petition. If any information was given to the Law Office either orally or in writing, Client represents that it is therefore contained in the petition.

Client acknowledges he/she is solely responsible for completing both the credit counseling course and the financial management course as required within time limits set forth in the Bankruptcy Code. Client understands that a Certificate of Completion of Credit Counseling must be obtained before the petition can be filed and that the Court will not issue a discharge in bankruptcy until the client completes the financial management course.

3. GENERAL

Client understands that Law Office will not investigate the possible existence of liens against the Client's property or person. The Client understands that if any such liens pre-date the filing of the bankruptcy petition, avoiding such a lien is unlikely and Law Office makes no representation that any such lien can be avoided. Client further understands that Law Office will not undertake any investigation to determine whether certain creditors are secured or unsecured but will instead rely upon representations from Client as to any such security interest. Client is informed that if a creditor is later determined to be secured, a reaffirmation or motion to redeem or avoid the debt will be necessary unless the security is surrendered.

Client understands that based on information provided to Law Office, certain creditors may allege non-dischargeability of debt and understands possible consequences thereof. Client has been informed that debts predating previous filings, educational debts, willful or malicious injury, fines, penalties, alcohol/drug related injuries, tax related debts, fraud, false pretenses, false statements, debts in the nature of alimony/maintenance/support and unlisted or improperly listed creditors, are generally non-dischargeable and Law Office makes no representations that any of those debts are dischargeable. Furthermore Client understands the possible consequences of such allegations that could include not only dismissal but also referral for criminal prosecution. Client further understands that attorney can make no representation as to effect of bankruptcy filing on the credit or credit reports of Client, spouse or any co-Debtors; Law Office has specifically informed client that in certain circumstances, notations may appear on the credit or credit report of spouses or co-Debtors. Law Office suggests that the Client undertake an examination of his/her credit reports soon after filing to determine if credit notations are correct. Credit reporting agencies often make errors and the Client alone is responsible for bringing such errors to the attention of the credit reporting agencies. Client also understands that filing of bankruptcy may have immigration consequences and that if Client is not a United States citizen, he/she is well advised to seek counsel of an immigration attorney prior to proceeding with the Chapter 7 Bankruptcy filing.

Law Office will supply Client with copies of all substantive correspondence and documents concerning his/her matter. Client is advised to secure these documents for future reference. Client may obtain copies of his/her file at additional cost if requested. However, due to storage constraints, Law Office reserves the right to destroy files after seven (7) years and copies may thereafter no longer be available.

Client acknowledges that no guarantees or assurances have been made by Law Office concerning the disposition of the Chapter 7 petition for bankruptcy or concerning when, or if, future credit will be extended to the Client. Any and all comments by Law Office concerning such matters are expressions of opinion only.

4. POSSIBLE ADDITIONAL CHARGES

The following is a list of possible additional attorney fees that may occur during Client's case. If services are not specifically mentioned under "BASIC FEES" section of this contract, fees will apply. Although Law Office will do its best to inform Client which of these services are likely to occur, this information is only an estimation. This list is not exhaustive and other fees or charges, not listed, may apply.

Client understands that all creditors must be supplied to Law Office by the time that the petition is signed. Client may supplement this list with missing creditors for a short period of time after filing, at which time an additional $150 attorney fee plus $26 filing fee will then apply for the first amended creditor, with an additional fee of $50 for each additional creditor presented for amendment, at the same time. In the event of a missing creditor, client should call Law Office immediately to determine if time for filing an amendment exists. Client agrees to diligently review his/her petition at the time of signing to make sure that all information is correct, complete and understood.

Client understands that only one (1) Creditors' Meeting date is set by the Court and his/her appearance is required. That in the event that Client is unable to attend said Meeting, the trustee may, in his/her discretion, grant additional continuances. In the event of such continuance, an additional $195 attorney fee, per continuance, will be due to Law Office from Client.

Client understands that matters requiring additional court filings or court appearances, including but not limited to, motions to avoid, redeem, withdraw petition, appeals and any contested matters and adversary proceeding(s) are subject to additional fees.

In the event that additional fees do apply, estimated fees will be due prior to the work being performed by Law Office.

Client has read this Agreement in full and agrees with its terms and representations. Client acknowledges receipt of a copy of this contract, along with additional documents titled, "527(a)(1) disclosure", "527(a)(2) disclosure", "527(b) disclosure" and "statement of Information required by U.S.C. Sec. 341", all of which are attached hereto and made apart hereof this Agreement.
